

WINES BY THE GLASS

Created by Derek Jakoboski, Wine Director

Our list is created to emphasize craftsmanship, tradition and wine of the highest value.

At Besos we seek local farm-fresh ingredients in an effort to support small local growers and producers who are able to focus on the finer details of their creative process, often resulting in a higher quality product. In keeping with this tradition, many of these wines are created by small family producers who dedicate themselves to perfection in their wine. The vast majority of these wines are bio-dynamic, organic, or sustainably produced, and all are meant to bring easily enjoyed deliciousness to every guest and meet every desired style. We bring you wine from the unsung corners of the world alongside wines of time-tested distinction.

Please indulge in your curiosity and ask questions.

Explore. It's only wine, and always worth trying something you've never had.

If you don't see what you are looking for, ask. We have numerous wines in reserve.

CRAFT

Arrogant Bastard 22 oz 7.2% 15

Aptly named, this beer is strongly flavored and better because of it. Pleasantly rough and blunt, bitter finish, and more flavors than you can name. Dark amber color, caramel malt, and a touch of hops. Loud, unpolished, and excellent.

Cambridge Brewing Flowerchild IPA 4.2% 6

Session IPA done right, coming from a brewpub in Boston. Golden color with pine-scented hops on the nose, a bit more citrus on the palate, and a very subtle sweetness of something mysterious, perhaps pineapple. Crisp and fresh.

Clown Shoes Bluegrass Billionaire Barleywine 22oz 12.5% 22

From Ipswich, Massachusetts. Surprisingly light for barleywine. The 12.5% is hidden dangerously well. Starts off sweet with brown sugar, maltiness, vanilla, and finishes dry with long bourbon notes. There are even dark fruit flavors borrowed from wine.

Clown Shoes Clementine Witbier 6% 4.5

Delicious. A fluffy, fresh wheat backbone with strong citrus up front without being overwhelmingly orange. This is not orange juice and beer, this is exactly what it sounds like: well crafted wheat beer with hints of clementine. If it's summer and you're sitting on the patio, this beer should be in your hand.

Delerium Tremens 22 oz 8.5% 15

The quintessential Belgian wheat ale, a gold standard for the category. This beer is just the right amount of everything - a little bit sweet but not too much, a little dry but pleasantly so, and complex without being esoteric. There's a good reason this beer has been around since 1906.

Dupont Saison Farmhouse Ale 6.5% 7

A beer for any occasion and every food. Light yellow, fruity, and spicy. The chained-down cork on the top of the bottle should be an indication of how carbonated it is: the last fermentation happens inside the bottle, champagne-style, and adds terrific lift to the flavor profile.

Dogfish Head 90-Minute IPA 9% 5

It's been called "the best IPA in America". That might be a stretch, but not by too much: this is simply delicious double IPA. Citrus and hops, of course, but also more interesting things often found in wine: tobacco, black tea, and tropical fruit.

Duvel 8.5% 6

A classic, and rightfully so. Elegance before power, this beer is quietly excellent. Spice rather than fruit, lighter despite the 8.5% alcohol that is difficult to detect, with a dry crisp finish. This beer has been around for ages, and for good reason.

Meinklang Ancient Grains Amber Ale 4.7 6

From an entirely self-sustaining winery comes not just wine, but also beer. Made from heirloom varieties of grains used in biblical times, such as spelt and khorasan. Cloudy and unfiltered. The color of an amber ale but with the maltiness of a pilsner. Smooth and very easy to drink.

New Holland Dragon's Milk Stout 11% 7

This stout is a phenomenal oatmeal stout. Huge, rich, and without being cloying. Deep coffee and cocoa flavors that hang around for a long time and do not let go, this beer sits on your palate and takes its time. Dark caramel, burned malt, and vanilla linger in the background. Dry and creamy finish.

Shacksbury Dry Cider 6.5% 5

This is definitely dry cider. If you've had enough of overly sweet sugar-injected ciders, try this. This is cider made from old "forgotten" varieties of apples. Fermented with wild yeasts and aged for six months before bottling. If one tried to make champagne from apples, this would be the result.

Timmerman's Kriek Lambic 4% 4.5

A beer for those who like cherry. A touch sweet but not overly so, and loaded with cherry juiciness. Timmerman's was the brewery that defined the style of cherry beer, and have been around for hundreds of years. This is it, the original cherry beer.

White Birch Berliner 4% 4.5

If you have any interest in sour beer, try what White Birch has to offer. These beers are excellent, our collective staff favorite, with just enough tartness to keep you interested, but with a great fluffy body to keep the beer balanced. White Birch offers sour beers made from blueberry, raspberry, and apple. Ask us which one we offer at the moment, but drink it regardless - they are all delicious.

HOUSE-CRAFTED COCKTAILS

GODDESS OF WINE 12

house-infused Concord grape pisco, Concord grape juice, bénédictine, house-made grape bitters, Grand Marnier rinse (light & refreshing orange and grape musk on the nose, deep grape skin and caramel flavors with a strong grape juice finish)

CHILL BILL'S PILL 12

vanilla & coconut infused rums, pineapple juice, house-made coffee bitters, one bar spoon of cream, topped with ground nutmeg
(vanilla and coffee flavors bring spice to a rich and smooth tropical tasting treat)

PLEASED AS PUNCH 12

muddled lemon and orange, shaken with gluten-free peach and mango vodka, topped with cranberry and sprite (refreshing and juicy peach flavors with tropical notes of mango, finished with a bite of citrus)

BEE'S KNEES 12

house-infused cherry tomato & honey vodka, house-made rose simple syrup, fresh lemon juice, granules of bee pollen (florally citrus notes rounded out by sweet honey and lightly acidic tomato)

SECRET GARDEN 12

freshly muddled lemon and mint, house-infused cucumber vodka, house-made beet & lemon shrub, ginger ale (refreshing cucumber and vibrant citrus flavors, smooth tangy beet finish)

MARTINIS

SPICEY FRESA 13

muddled strawberries and cilantro, agave nectar, reposado tequila, fresh lime juice, spray of mezcal (sweet honey notes round out a spicy crisp cilantro kick, brightened up by sweet and tart berry flavors)

SWAN SONG 13

vodka, sweet Italian vermouth, cointreau, house-made grenadine, Grand Marnier rinse (pronounced sweet orange and vanilla flavors combine with a sweet tartiness for a smooth, long and clean finish)

ANOTHER LOVE 13

Hendrick's gin, lychee, elderflower, house-made chamomile and citrus bitters, pear purée
(sweet botanical, floral flavors are brightened by citrus notes and notes of rose petal with a sweet and refreshing cucumber, pear finish)

BOBBY BURNS 13

blended scotch whiskey, bénédictine, sweet Italian vermouth, peel of lemon (caramel and smokey flavors bind together with citrus notes for a warm sweet finish)

TUXEDO #2 13

dry gin, maraschino liqueur, dry Italian vermouth, house-made orange bitters, absinthe rinse, peel of lemon
(a botanical backdrop of dry gin, anise, sweet orange and cherry flavors, combine for a full smooth mouth feel)

BATH-TUB GIN

Leading up to Prohibition of alcohol in the United States, gin was one of the most popularly consumed spirits on earth. After it was made illegal in 1921 by the passage of the 18th amendment, many lovers of the botanical spirit sought to create illegal substitutes by infusing neutral grain spirits in their bathtubs. Hence the name Bath-Tub Gin.

In an attempt to capture and celebrate the history of that time period the Besos bar team has concocted a botanically infused bath-tub style gin for you to enjoy. Imagine yourself experiencing a true prohibition era libation, without the fear of breaking the law of course. Simply choose one of the flavor profiles listed below and let our master mixologists assemble a true specialty cocktail in that style featuring our very own botanically infused Bath-Tub Gin.
